Introduction

Welcome to Lincoln City Government!

The City Council and staff hope that this Advisory Body Handbook will answer many of your questions and provide you with fundamental information related to the responsibilities of the City's various advisory bodies.

Serving on one of the City commissions, committees, or boards can be a fascinating and rewarding experience. These advisory bodies are charged with formulating new ideas, information gathering, receiving public testimony and comments, analyzing complex issues, and making recommendations on specific projects and broad policy - all toward helping the City Council make better-informed decisions.

As you may realize, it isn't always easy. Issues are often more complex than anticipated, public opinion can be sharply divided, questions may overlap, and sometimes the province of one body may also be the territory of another.

Much of the information in this Handbook comes from a variety of City policy documents, such as the City's Municipal Code, Financial Plan (or budget) and Council Policies and Procedures. In addition, State Law governs certain responsibilities of advisory body members. The material presented is intended to: 1) give interested persons an understanding of why the City's advisory bodies have been established and how they function within the overall governmental framework; and, 2) summarize the roles, relationships and responsibilities of each advisory body member. The Handbook is divided into six sections:

- Section 1: Advisory Body Basics
- Section 2: How City Government Works
- Section 3: How Advisory Bodies Work
- Section 4: The Brown Act
- Section 5: Tips for Being an Effective Member and Chair of an Advisory Body
- Section 6: Advisory Body Bylaws

Thank you for your interest in serving on one of our citizen advisory bodies and volunteering your time and skills to enhance our community.

Section 1. Advisory Body Basics

A. Background

Lincoln has a long history of involving its citizens in the business of their City government. Advisory committees and commissions provide an opportunity for interested residents to participate in the governing of their community under guidelines and procedures established by the Council. Advisory bodies can improve the quality of City government by providing the Council with resources to make better-informed decisions. Because of the nature of various advisory bodies, they can serve as the “eyes and ears” of the Council for issues and matters that otherwise might not receive the attention they deserve. Other benefits of advisory bodies include improvement in the lines of communication between the public and the Council, greater opportunities for discussion of public issues, and more citizen involvement in City government.

There is considerable variety in the purpose or charge of these bodies. Some are required by State law or the Municipal Code and are directed to guide certain City activities such as community planning or financial matters. Others have been created by the City Council to serve Lincoln’s unique needs.

However, the authority of an advisory body will depend upon its specific purpose. Some have been delegated specific authority to approve or deny projects. Decisions made by an advisory body may be appealed to the Council. The Council may not always accept the recommendation of an advisory body because of additional information available or a need to balance the recommendation with policy or community priorities.

Generally, advisory bodies are empowered only to make recommendations to the Council or to the City staff, unless specifically authorized by law or Council to do otherwise. Lastly, there should be two-way communication so that commissions are aware of the long-term goals Council has adopted, and the advisory body is able to present new ideas to the Council. Commission members are encouraged to attend Council meetings.

B. Opportunities for Service

Interested individuals may apply for appointment to any of the following City advisory bodies:

- Accessibility Advisory Committee
- Airport Committee
- Economic Development Committee
- Fiscal & Investments Oversight Committee
- Library Advisory Board/Committee
- Parks & Recreation Committee
- Planning Commission

C. Membership Qualifications & Appointment Process

The City of Lincoln encourages participation of a wide variety of its citizens through service on an advisory body. Unless specified, there is no special education, training or background required for appointment.

With the following exceptions, only residents who reside within the City limits are eligible to apply to an advisory body. Exceptions include the Accessibility Advisory Committee, Airport Committee, Library Advisory Board/Committee, Economic Development Committee and Park & Recreation Committee.

Basic elements of the appointment process are as follows:

1. Each person seeking appointment or reappointment to an advisory body shall obtain and file an application with the Office of the City Clerk. Application may be made for a vacancy that currently exists or which may occur in the future.
2. Applicants should have read and become familiar with the contents of this handbook.
3. Applicants shall be screened and interviewed by the City Council. The Mayor, with the consent of the council, will appoint the committee member. City Council may, at their discretion, waive interviews for those applicants who have been interviewed previously.
4. Applicants not appointed will be so advised and their applications held for no less than two years for consideration in the event of a future vacancy.
5. As a general policy, an applicant shall not be appointed to serve on more than one advisory body except that a member may also serve on one technical or special-purpose committee at the same time. (Technical and special purpose committees are formed to address defined subjects. They frequently require members with specific areas of expertise.)

D. Orientation

After the appointments are made by the Council, new appointees will be given a resource manual including a variety of introductory references to assist them in becoming more fully knowledgeable about City government. The department serving as staff support to a particular advisory body will coordinate and conduct an orientation with new appointees. Before or during that orientation, support staff will provide relevant documentation and background information about the specific advisory body upon which the new appointee shall serve.

E. Term of Office

The term of office for each appointee to an advisory body shall be four years expiring on December 31st or until a successor has been appointed whichever is latest. Where a mid-term vacancy occurs, the appointment shall be for the remainder of the term of the person vacating the office.

F Removal from Office

No appointment shall create tenure or any other property right in the person appointed. Members of advisory bodies serve at the pleasure of the Council and may be removed without cause at any time by a majority vote of the City Council.

G. Vacancies

Seats become vacant in two ways; they either expire at the end of the term or an “unscheduled” vacancy occurs when a member resigns during a term. The City Clerk’s Office will advertise in accordance with statutory requirements and a subsequent appointment shall be made consistent with the provisions set forth in Section C, above.

H. Ethics and Conflict of Interest

1. The duties of an advisory body member shall be performed in good faith and in a manner which the member believes to be in the best interest of the City.
2. It is improper for any member of an advisory body to utilize, for personal pecuniary gain or in an otherwise self-dealing manner, any information which is received by reason of said membership and is not a matter of public record.
3. The Political Reform Act of 1974, as amended (Government Code sections 81000-91014) and the City’s Conflict of Interest Code; (Resolution No. 2014-020) require certain elected and appointed officials and designated employees to disclose certain personal financial holdings. Most of the City’s advisory bodies are solely advisory, meaning that final decisions are made by the City Council, and therefore are not required to file Statements of Economic Interest (Form 700).

However, because the following advisory bodies have limited decision-making authority, they are required to file Form 700 with the Office of the City Clerk:

- Planning Commission

Filing dates for Form 700 are as follows:

- Assuming Office Statement – Must be filed within 30 days of taking office.
- Annual Statements – Must be filed by April 1st of each year.
- Leaving Office Statement – Must be filed within 30 days of leaving office.

4. In addition to Conflict of Interest filing requirement, the following advisory board members are required to complete two hours of ethics training. For newly elected and appointed officials, the requirement is to receive this training within one year of assuming office and renew this training within two years of receiving the first training. The original proof of participation certificate, awarded after completion of the training, must be sent to the City Clerk.

- Planning Commission

5. Individual advisory body members should avoid making public comments on Council actions or public policies that might appear to represent the official position of their advisory body. Advisory body actions, with the voting of each member, are conveyed to the Council in the form of official minutes or by resolution. The Chair of an advisory body is the spokesperson for the advisory body.

6. Questions regarding possible ethical issues or conflicts of interest should be reviewed with the Chair, City Attorney, or City Clerk, as appropriate under the circumstances, in advance of the subject meeting or discussion.

I. Awards and Recognition

The City Council values and appreciates each citizen who volunteers his/her time and energy to serving the City on an advisory body. When a member terminates service on an advisory body, the Council will recognize that member's contribution to the City through an appropriate expression of appreciation. If that advisory body wishes to make its own presentation to an outgoing member, the Chair shall communicate with the City Clerk in order to avoid duplication of awards.

Section 2. How City Government Works

A. General Law City

Lincoln is a "general law" city incorporated on August 18, 1890. Under California law, the authority of a general law City is derived only from the powers granted to it by the general laws adopted by the State Legislature pertaining to the organization and operation of a municipality, and from the police power granted to it by the State Constitution. General law cities are governed by a city council of five members, a city clerk, a city treasurer, a police chief, a fire chief and any subordinate officers or employees as required by law. City electors may adopt an ordinance which provides for a different number of council members. The Government Code also authorizes the "city manager" form of government and municipal elections are conducted in accordance with the California Elections Code. Cities may also choose to elect the city council "by" or "from" districts, so long as the election system has been established by ordinance and approved by the voters. The Mayor may be elected by the city council or by vote of the people.

B. City Council

The City of Lincoln is governed by the City Council/City Manager form of government. A five-member City Council is elected by district to four-year terms to oversee the City operations and to guide the future development of the City. Council-member terms are staggered so that a measure of continuity is maintained in the transition from one Council to the next. City Council elections are held in November of even numbered years. The City utilizes a mayoral rotation system to determine which Council members shall be chosen to serve as Mayor and Mayor Pro Tem. The City Council also serves as the Board of Directors for the Successor Agency to the Former Redevelopment Agency of the City of Lincoln and the Lincoln Public Financing Authority. Regular Council meetings are held on the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month in the Council Chamber at City Hall. In addition, special meetings and study sessions are held from time to time as the need arises. The Mayor is the official spokesperson for the Council.

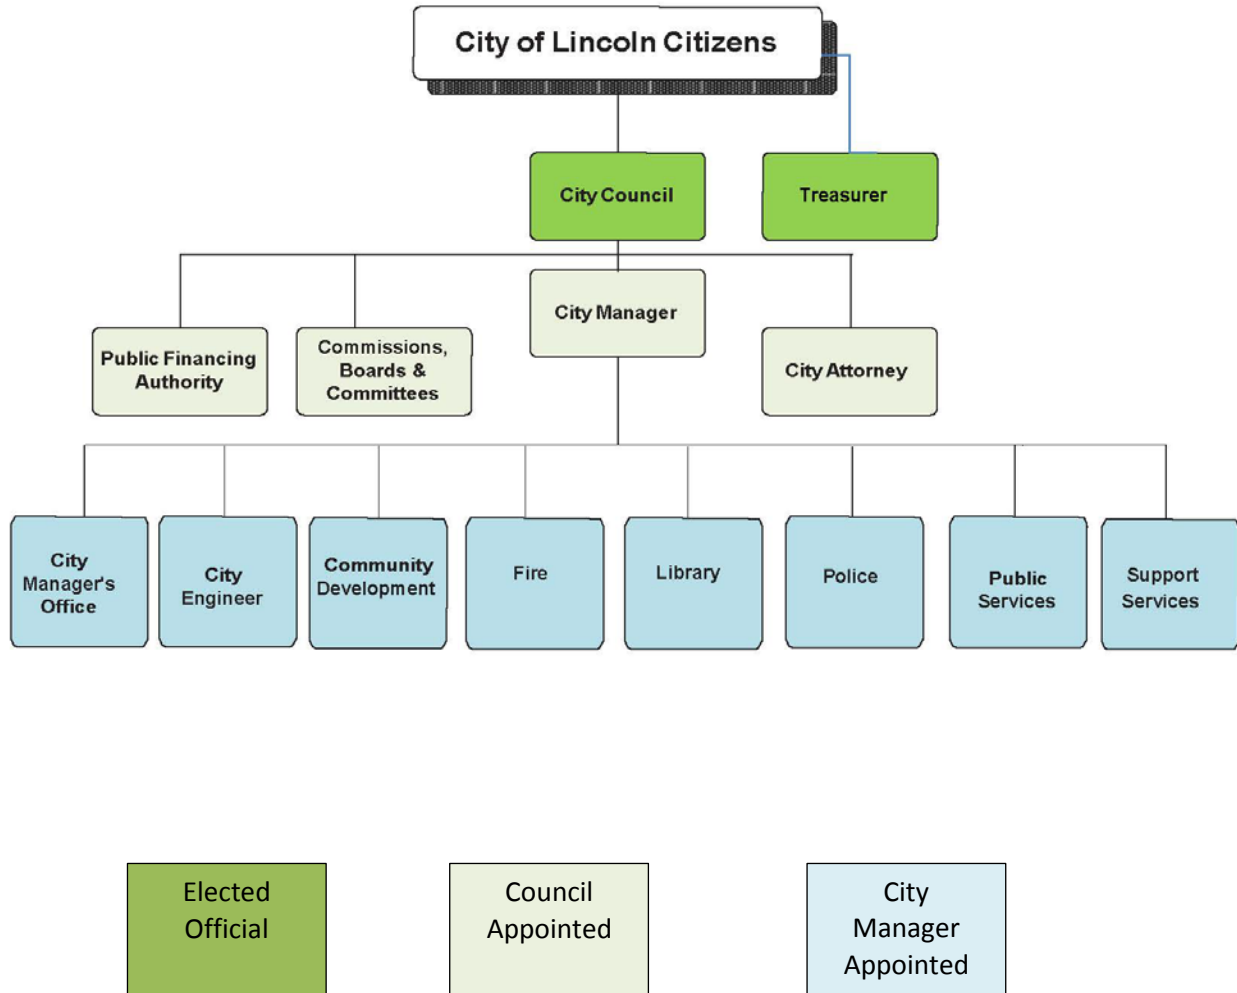

The Council has the power to make and enforce all laws and regulations relating to municipal affairs, subject to the limitations of the United States and California Constitutions, and certain state statutes.

Final decisions on City taxes and fees, budgets, City policies including the General Plan and land use issues, and other matters are made by the City Council.

C. City Organization

As shown on the Organizational Chart, the City Council is directly responsible to the citizens for the operation and well-being of the City. To carry out these responsibilities, the Council relies on:

1. The administrative skills of a City Manager
2. The legal advice of a City Attorney
3. The citizen advice rendered by advisory commission, committees, and boards.

D. Council-Appointed Officers

City Manager: The City Municipal Code requires the Council to appoint an executive to run the City's day-to-day operations. The City Manager is appointed by and directly responsible to the Council for all City activities. The eight operational departments, through their directors or chiefs, are responsible to the City Manager.

City Attorney: The City Attorney provides legal services and advice to the Council, the City Manager, departmental staff, advisory bodies and other City agencies or officials. The City Attorney represents the City in court, prepares ordinances and other legal documents, and prosecutes cases involving violations of City laws. The City Attorney is appointed by, and is directly responsible to, the Council.

Public Financing Authority(PFA): The PFA partners with the City to assist in the financing of public benefit projects that creates affordable housing, community infrastructure and improve the overall quality of life in Lincoln.

Commissions, Boards and Committees: These advisory body members are responsible for the functions of the various advisory bodies as detailed in this handbook and the Chair is responsible for committee compliance with the policies outlined in this handbook. It is important that recommendations the advisory bodies wish to communicate to the City Council are made through adopted or approved Council agenda procedures. Staff members shall assist the advisory body chair to insure appropriate legal review of City and state legislation is complied with.

E. City Departments

The following departments are directly responsible to the City Manager.

City Manager's Department: The City Manager's Department is responsible for providing information and recommendations to the Council, implementing Council policies, and guiding the day-to-day operations of the City. In addition, the City Clerk, Economic Development, Human Resources and Special Projects are carried out by staff in the City Manager's Department. The City Clerk provides a full range of services for the City Council, including preparation of the agendas and minutes, codifying ordinances, and conducting elections. The City Clerk also administers the advisory body appointment process. Economic Development provides staff support for a City advisory body. The Human Resources and Special Projects Department conducts a comprehensive personnel management program to attract and retain competent City employees. The Director is responsible for recruiting, testing, classifying, evaluating and training employees, evaluating employee salaries, administering the City's Personnel Rules and Regulations and directing the City's Risk Management Program. The Director of Human Resources is appointed by, and is responsible to, the City Manager.

City Engineer: The City Engineer's Department is focused on project and program support of activities that are primarily in the public right-of-way, public infrastructure, and City facilities. Such activities usually deal with public infrastructure such as roads, streets, bridges, utility lines and waterways. The City Engineer's Department staff performs final review following initial review and conditioning by Community Development, and approves all new residential development improvements for conformance to the City of Lincoln Improvement Standards and Design Criteria. The City Engineer's Department develops, implements and oversees and inspects the capital improvement program for public infrastructure and builds, updates and maintains the City's GIS for efficient retrieval of information related to City utilities, streets and other infrastructure.

Community Development: The Community Development Department has five divisions, all under the direction of the Community Development Director who is appointed by, and is responsible to, the City Manager. The Community Development Department is part of a one-stop operation that addresses permitting and development aspects for all new development that occurs in the City. This includes operations within Administration, Building, Code Enforcement, Planning, as well as corollary services involving land development Engineering. Administration Division provides direction, coordination and support to the Building and Planning functions. Building Division provides for review and processing of building permit submittals for remodels and new construction, plan checking, permit issuance and field inspections, ensuring compliance with all applicable Building Codes. Related actions include abatement of dangerous structures. Planning and Engineering Divisions review and process various development entitlement applications (such as conditional use permits, general development plans, design review and tentative maps, along with environmental review of these projects where required), and long-range planning actions (such as the oversight of the City's General Plan and other key policy documents that help guide future development). This also includes Code Enforcement Division actions, which support the above services by ensuring City Codes related to development and land use are adhered to, and includes tracking of and responding to complaints.

Fire: The Fire Department responds to and helps mitigate emergencies providing the highest level of service that available funds allow. This enhances the quality of life of residents and the economic vitality of the businesses we serve. The City of Lincoln is served by its three fire stations and a staff of twenty full-time employees which is augmented by reserve and volunteer firefighters. The Fire department responds with teams of two person fire engines and will continue to strive to exceed customer expectations. The department's ability to maintain staffing levels and keep all three fire stations open is limited to available funding for overtime within the department's budget. The department continues to provide and receive assistance from neighboring jurisdictions through mutual and automatic aid whenever possible. Like most communities across America, emergency medical service (EMS) calls far outnumber fire calls for service.

Library: The Library at Twelve Bridges has been providing library services and programming to the community 23 hours per week. New initiatives include advertising library services and programs on the Lincoln Public Access Channel and via social media; improving library security with ID badges for Volunteers and installation of security cameras and panic button at Circulation Desk. The Library has the following programs: Family Storytime, Mother Goose on the Loose Storytime, Movie Night, Summer Reading Program, Homework Help Center and the Reference Center.

Police: The Police Department has primary jurisdiction for the enforcement of state law within City of Lincoln as well as certain ordinances included in the City's municipal code. Additionally, the Police Department implements and manages programs designed to reduce crime, and partners with other City departments, government entities, stakeholder groups, and individual citizens to protect the quality of life in Lincoln. This department is under the direction of the Chief of Police who is appointed by, and is responsible to, the City Manager. The Department's core service responsibilities include, but are not limited to, the following: 1) Provide a public safety answering point and resources to respond to immediate threats to life and property, 2) provide a police presence to deter and interdict crime and public offenses, 3) investigate crime and public offenses; identify and apprehend offenders and prepare cases for prosecution and 4) undertake activities and maintain systems as mandated by state and federal law. The police department sponsors a 45 member Lincoln Police Volunteer program that supports the department's operations and provides a variety of community safety programs.

Public Works: The Public Works Department provides infrastructure, public health and safety, and management services. The Department includes design, operations and maintenance for the majority of City facilities and City delivered services. These services are administered through the Department's operating areas, including Administration, Airport, Facilities, Open-Space management, Parks, Fleet, Parks & Recreation, Solid Waste, Streets, Wastewater Collection/Treatment, Water Distribution and Water Quality. The Department operates facilities that are critical to maintaining public health and welfare and services that are very highly regulated by State and Federal government agencies. The nature of the functions overseen by Public Works requires a significant level of interaction with internal and external customers, including citizens, businesses, other City departments, and other users of City facilities. The direct customer contact provides substantial and immediate feedback, and staff has a high commitment to customer service. The majority of the Department operations are funded through enterprise funds or through restricted funds with very little General Fund revenue. Leisure Services Division is dedicated to meeting the recreational needs of the citizens of Lincoln by providing quality programs and exceptional customer service. In addition, the Parks and Recreation division contributes to the City's park master planning and serves as a liaison with the Parks and Recreation Committee and offers five program areas: Administration, Adult Sports, Aquatics, Camps/Community Classes, and Youth Sports

Finance Department: The Finance Department provides services to enable the rest of the organization to deliver direct services to the community of Lincoln. The department is comprised of the following core services: Administration, Budgeting, Finance, Utility Billing, Central Services (Purchasing, Risk Management), and Information Technology. The Support Services Department is responsible for sound fiscal management that facilitates meeting the needs of the organization by achieving the following goals and objectives: 1) Maintain the integrity of the City's financial reporting system, 2) Provide timely and accurate information which will enable City leadership to make informed decisions regarding the financial affairs of the City, 3) Manage and protect the City's financial resources, 4) Manage the City's budgetary process, 5) Manage the City's Investment Portfolio. 6) Coordinate the efficient purchase of goods and services to support City operations and 7) Manage the City's information technology contracted services.

Section 3. How Advisory Bodies Work

A. Bylaws and Procedures

1. Bylaws: Each advisory body has approved bylaws that set forth procedures, purpose, specific functions, meetings, officers, budget, etc. (Municipal Code 2.51.010). By May 1st of each odd-numbered year, the bylaws of each advisory body shall be reviewed by that body. Any proposed changes shall be submitted to the Council through the City Clerk for approval. If no changes are proposed, a report of the review shall be submitted.
2. Parliamentary Procedures: All advisory body meetings shall be conducted in accordance with City practices and policies. Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised, shall also be used as a general guide in conducting meetings. Questions should be directed to the appropriate City staff. A quorum of the Committee shall be as stated in individually adopted advisory body bylaws or procedures.
3. Meetings & Events: All regular meetings shall be held at the established time and place set for that body. Council may hold an event from time to time to recognize advisory body members. (See also Section 1 K).

B. Continuity of Work and New Ideas

1. Continuity: There exists a pattern of continuing work for every advisory body in order that the needs of the community are served in a thoughtful yet expeditious manner. Advisory body Chairs and the assigned professional staff are the responsible parties for establishing an even flow of work. New members to advisory bodies are expected to familiarize themselves with the workload. Normally, it will take new members a bit of time to develop a full understanding of their new work and confidence in their decision-making abilities. Staff members can be helpful with questions.
2. New Ideas: Advisory body members should view themselves as an extension of the abilities of the Council and staff to see and hear matters of importance in our community. Sometimes old policies and established ways of doing things need to be changed. Sometimes fresh ideas need to be given a trial. How does the process of developing a new "idea" work?
 - a. Test the idea on friends; are reactions favorable?
 - b. Bring the idea to your advisory body under the portion of your agenda where individual member comments on items not on the agenda are entertained. If fellow members react favorably; the idea should be formalized in written form.
 - c. At this point, the "cost" of the idea in terms of staff time and dollars must be evaluated. If staff sees the cost to be minor and the impact on City operations to be negligible, the idea can be agendized, discussed publicly and a final decision can be made for a recommendation to the City Council.

- d. Should the “cost” in staff time and money be deemed high, then the Council should be properly informed and budgeting and staff time approved before further action is taken by the advisory body.

A good time for advancing new ideas is during the City Budgeting Workshops, when advisory bodies and citizens are actively encouraged to offer such suggestions to the Council, as most of the resource decisions are made at that time.

C. Communications

1. Written Reports: Advisory bodies are occasionally requested to make special reports or recommendations to the Council on specific subjects. The Council may make this request in writing, with specific direction as to the approach, scope, and schedule for the study desired. These recommendations often play a major role in assisting the Council to reach a final decision on important issues.
 - a. Any recommendation or report from an advisory body is required to be in written form. If the matter is to appear on the Council agenda, the report must be submitted to the City Clerk no later than three weeks prior to the Council meeting at which the report is to be considered. This report becomes part of the record and is forwarded to each Council Member for review in advance of public consideration.
 - b. Some advisory bodies may receive study or action requests from citizens or groups. These requests should also be presented in writing to the advisory body, which will then determine if the committee wishes to pursue that particular issue. The committee shall advise the Council of the request and the body’s determination for action.
2. Goals/Budget: Each advisory body shall prepare proposed major City Goals and Objectives in a manner established by the City Manager. The advisory body Chair will be responsible for speaking to this proposal when the Council conducts its goal setting in study session. The City Manager will notify the Chair of time and place of such Council review. More detailed budget proposals will be made through advisory body staff, consistent with the budget schedule and process.
3. Statements: An advisory body does not have authority to speak for the City. If the body wishes to recommend that a statement be made, such as a letter written to state a position, it shall be submitted to and receive approval of the Council.
4. Public Forums and Surveys: An advisory body shall not sponsor or co-sponsor a public forum, meeting or survey without the prior approval of the Council.
5. Personal Testimony: If a member of an advisory body appears before the Council (or another advisory body) in a capacity other than as representative of his/her body, it should be explained in advance that any statements made are not to be construed as representing the opinions or recommendations of the advisory body.

6. Changes: Changes in a member's address or telephone number, and the names of new officers, shall be submitted to the City Clerk and advisory body staff liaison as soon as possible.
7. Annual Report: Each advisory body is required to submit to the Council by May 1st an annual report describing its activities and evaluating its progress for the year.

D. Role of City Staff Persons and Advisory Body Members

Staff support and assistance is provided, but advisory bodies do not have supervisory authority over City employees. While they may work closely with advisory bodies, staff members remain responsible to their immediate supervisors and ultimately to the City Manager and Council. The advisory body members are responsible for the functions of the advisory body and the Chair is responsible for committee compliance with the policies outlined in this handbook.

Staff support includes preparation of a summary agenda, preparation of agenda reports providing a brief background of the issue, a list of alternatives, recommendations and appropriate backup material, as necessary. Staff will assist advisory bodies in the conduct of public meetings and ensure that the business listed on the agenda is addressed. Advisory body members should have sufficient information to reach decisions based upon a clear explanation of the issues involved. An assigned body member, unless a Secretary is appointed by the body, insures that minutes are taken as needed.

It is important that recommendations the advisory bodies wish to communicate to the City Council are made through adopted or approved Council agenda procedures. Staff members shall assist the advisory body chair to insure appropriate legal review or City and state legislation is complied with.

E. Absences, Leaves of Absence, and Resignations

1. Attendance: If an advisory body member fails, for any reason, to attend three successive regular meetings without cause, that member shall automatically be considered for replacement. The Chair of the advisory body shall inform the Council, through the City Clerk, of such a situation, explaining any extenuating circumstances resulting in the absences.
2. Absences: There shall be no "excused" absences. Because of quorum requirements, when an absence is anticipated, the individual advisory body member is responsible for notifying the Chair or the secretary in advance and the absence shall be counted in that member's attendance record.
3. Leaves of Absence: Leaves of absence are not granted to advisory body members except under very unusual circumstances and when authorized in advance by the Council.
4. Resignation: In the event a member finds it necessary to resign from an advisory body, a letter of resignation stating the effective date of the resignation shall be immediately directed to the Council through the City Clerk, with a copy forwarded to the Chair of the advisory body.

F. Functional Review

1. Election: Each advisory body, at its first annual meeting, shall elect a Chair and a vice Chair.
2. Terms of Office: The term of office of a Chair or vice Chair shall be one year, commencing upon election. No person shall serve as Chair or vice Chair for more than two consecutive terms except if noted elsewhere under specific boards and commissions.

Section 4. The Brown Act

A. Overview

The State Legislature has declared that the actions of public bodies be taken openly and that their deliberations be conducted openly. California's Ralph M. Brown Act (found in the Government Code Section 54950 through 54961), also known as the "open meeting law," applies to all advisory bodies, and requires that they:

1. Meet within the jurisdictional limits of the City.
2. Post the agenda 72 hours before a regular meeting containing a brief general description of each item of business to be transacted or discussed.
3. Hold open and public meetings.
4. Give notice of the meetings to any requesting party at least 24 hours prior to the meeting.
5. Provide in bylaws or rules for time and place of regular meetings, if regular meetings are to be held.

A meeting is defined as a gathering of a majority (quorum) of the advisory body for the purpose of discussing items before the body or conducting other business of the body. It is important to understand that the Brown Act generally prohibits any action or discussion of items not on the posted agenda. There are special posting requirements for advisory body agendas:

- Regular Meetings – 72 hours in advance
- Special Meetings – 24 hours in advance
- Adjourned Meetings – a regular or special meeting may be adjourned to a specific time and place (usually to continue a public hearing or other business). A special notice is required and should be posted within 24 hours of adjournment.

B. Brown Act Provides for Public Comments

The Brown Act mandates that regular meeting agendas allow for two types of public comment periods. The first is a general audience comment period, where the public can comment on any item of interest that is within subject matter jurisdiction of the local agency and that is not listed on the posted agenda. This general audience comment period may come at any time during a meeting (§54954.3).

The second type of public comment period is the specific comment period pertaining to items on the advisory body's agenda. The Brown Act requires that the advisory body allow these specific comment periods on agenda items to occur prior to or during the advisory body's consideration of that item (§54954.3), including consent calendar items.

Public Comments at Special Meetings: The Brown Act requires that agendas for special meetings provide an opportunity for members of the public to speak about any item listed on the agenda prior to the advisory body's consideration of that item (§54954.3). Therefore, for special meetings, advisory bodies must allow public comments for items on the agenda, however (unlike regular meetings), a public comment period for items not on the agenda is not required.

Limitations on Length and Content of Public's Comments: The Brown Act allows a legislative body to adopt reasonable regulations limiting total amount of time allocated for public testimony. In Lincoln, the typical time limit for speakers is three (3) minutes.

It is not permissible to prohibit public criticism of policies, procedures, programs, or services of the City or acts or omissions of the City (§54954.3(c)). This does not mean that a member of the public may speak on "anything." If the topic is not within the subject matter jurisdiction of the advisory body, the Chair should remind the speaker to direct his/her comments to only those subjects within the advisory body's purview.

C. Common Questions about the Brown Act

The following is intended to give advisory body members a broad understanding of the Brown Act. Please consult with the staff liaison, the City Clerk, or the City Attorney for more specifics.

1. What are serial meetings?

A serial meeting is any direct communication amongst a majority of the members, outside of a meeting, to develop a collective concurrence as to action to be taken on an item by the members. Serial meetings are strictly prohibited by the Brown Act.

Even though a majority of members never gather in a room at the same time, a Brown Act violation may occur if ideas are exchanged among the majority by going through any person acting as an intermediary (including staff), and/or through the use of a technological devices, e.g. telephone answering machine, computer email, social media or voice mail.

2. What are some examples of serial meetings?

The most common example of a serial meeting is when "Member A" calls "Member B" and then "Member B" calls "Member C," and so on to share ideas among a majority of the advisory body.

Another example: A member of a five-member advisory body receives a letter regarding City business and writes a note on that letter that says "I agree," and then provides a copy of the letter to two other members.

Email can also be troublesome. Here's an example of how easy it can be to unintentionally conduct a serial meeting: A staff member sends out via email a document in draft form for review by the advisory body prior to a meeting. "Member A" recommends to staff a revision and copies fellow advisory body members. "Member B" disagrees with the proposed change and others begin to "weigh in" on the subject.

3. This seems restrictive... aren't there any exceptions?

Of course, prohibition against serial meetings does not prohibit all communication between individuals regarding City business. The Brown Act only prohibits use of serial meetings to discuss, deliberate, or take action on any item of business that is within the subject matter jurisdiction of the legislative body. This does not prohibit a staff person from "briefing" members provided that the briefing is limited to furnishing information, and the staff person does not solicit opinions concerning an appropriate course of action for City and then share them among the members.

4. What's a Quorum?

A quorum is the majority (more than half) of the total number of established members of the committee. A quorum must be present for any business discussion or action to take place. A quorum must be present for the duration of a meeting. If a member leaves during the meeting, resulting in the lack of a quorum, no further business may be conducted and the meeting must be adjourned.

5. What are some exceptions to the Brown Act?

Advisory body members may attend and/or participate in the following as long as a majority of the members do not discuss amongst themselves matters that are within the subject jurisdiction of the advisory body:

- Informational or educational workshops or conferences
- Community meetings, such as town hall meetings, workshops, forums, etc. not sponsored by the advisory body
- A meeting of another body of the local agency
- Social or ceremonial events.

6. Can an advisory body conduct a retreat?

"Team building" or "goal setting" retreats may be held, but they must be held within the City, be properly noticed, and be open to the public.

Section 5. Tips for Being an Effective Advisory Body Member

A. Understanding Your Role and Scope of Responsibility

After appointment by the Council, the City Clerk will present new advisory body members with a useful binder of information about the City, which includes this handbook. In addition, the City staff member designated to serve in support of your advisory body will schedule an orientation appointment with you. This is your chance to learn more about City government and the scope of responsibility of the advisory body to which you have been appointed. In addition to reading this Handbook (which will answer many of your questions), start preparing for your new role by:

1. Reviewing the City's Mission Statement, Organizational Values, and your advisory body by-laws.
2. Reading the other information provided to you in your orientation binder about the City and your specific advisory body. Keep the binder handy for easy reference and review.
3. Getting to know fellow advisory body members and staff. Learn the history and "language" of your advisory body. Ask about upcoming issues.
4. Considering meeting with the Chair of your advisory body and/or a Council Liaison to learn more about your role and to understand expectations. This will help you focus in on the "big picture" and how you fit in.
5. Becoming familiar with basic meeting management and diplomatic decision-making procedures.
6. Attending training programs and workshops offered to you by the City.

B. Prepare Ahead for Meetings

Most citizens understand when they apply to serve on an advisory body that they will be making a commitment of time to attend meetings, but many are often surprised by the amount of time it takes to prepare properly for a meeting. Being prepared is key to making good decisions and will strengthen the value of your advisory body's recommendations.

1. Do your homework! This involves setting enough time aside to review thoroughly and consider the entire agenda packet.
2. When you receive your agenda packet, read it carefully. Be prepared to discuss fully, evaluate, and act on all matters scheduled for consideration. Think about:
 - a. The number of items.
 - b. Those items that may be controversial.
 - c. Difficult procedural items.
 - d. Issues you know little about.

3. Visit any sites or facilities that will help you understand the issues.
4. Start a list of questions for staff.
5. Call or meet with staff before the meeting to learn more, if need be. Getting more information ahead of time may make your decision-making easier and help move the meeting. Your questions may also alert staff to issues that others may also be pondering. Advance knowledge assists staff with preparing oral reports and adequately addressing the issues during the meeting.
6. Show up on time and be ready to work. (It's also helpful to be well rested!)

C. Develop Positive Relationships

Being selected by the City Council to serve on an advisory body is a high honor and provides a unique opportunity for genuine public service. Open, honest and supportive relationships with the City Council, with City staff and fellow members of your advisory body will ensure your success and effectiveness.

1. The proper channel to contact City staff on items of consideration is through the designated City staff person providing support to your advisory body.
2. Demonstrate respect to your fellow advisory body members by being a good listener, by communicating honestly, and by being dependable.
3. Adopt a positive attitude and become a problem-solver.
4. If you have a new idea, propose it to the group as a whole. (See also Section 3.C.2, Continuity of Work and New Ideas.)
5. If friction develops, individuals should make every attempt to clarify differences and make certain that clear communication is taking place. The public meeting should not be used to express anger or disagreement.
6. If differences cannot be resolved, consider consulting with the appropriate individual/s next in line in the "chain of command": 1) Staff Liaison or Chair, 2) the Department Head, 3) City Manager or Council Liaison.

D. Encourage and Honor Public Participation

Some advisory body meetings are well attended by the public and others are not. Nevertheless, it's important to remember that everyone is entitled to his or her own opinions.

Some members of the public are quite used to speaking before a public body, but most are not. Individuals may address the advisory body to either present an issue or concern, or to speak for or against an item. This may be the first time they have ever done this, and they may find the experience intimidating. Anxiety can be expressed in a variety of ways, including aggressiveness or forgetfulness, so be patient and remember to:

1. Be fair and consistent.
2. Pay attention to all speakers and actively listen to what they are saying.
3. Ask questions for clarification, but avoid debate or "cross-examining."
4. Be sure that your body language is not sending mixed or negative messages.
5. See also this section G: Special Tips for the Chair.

E. Respect Individual Viewpoints

Although it may seem like this tip could simply go unsaid, it is important to remember it (especially when you feel very strongly about a matter): Treat fellow members of your advisory body, staff, and the public with respect and courtesy at all times.

1. Ask the Chair for permission to speak.
2. Allow others time to present their views fully.
3. Actively listen and seek to understand.
4. Avoid interrupting others.
5. Be open to new ideas.
6. Explore alternatives.
7. When necessary, agree to disagree.

F. Communicate Effectively

Advisory body members serve as a communications link between the community, staff, and City Council. You provide a channel for citizen expression. Not only is it important for you to listen carefully to others, but you also need to be able to communicate effectively what you are hearing and thinking.

1. Take notes to remind yourself of questions you want to ask or important comments you wish to make.
2. Be direct, open, and forthright.
3. Provide rationale for opinions or recommendations.
4. Stay on topic.
5. Take your charge seriously, but maintain composure and keep your sense of humor.
6. When speaking to the public and/or press, be sure you are representing the majority views of your individual advisory body. Personal opinions should be clearly identified as such.
7. Speak clearly and be sure people can hear you.
8. If you wish to communicate using electronic mail (email), use the tool wisely. It is easy to unintentionally violate the Brown Act, so certain caution must be exercised when using email. (See Section 4, Common Questions about the Brown Act.)

G. Special Tips for the Chair

The Chair's main role is to provide the advisory body with group direction and to set the tone for meetings. The Chair must balance being strong enough to move the meeting along and democratic enough to involve all members in the meeting. The effective Chair:

- 1) Explains the public participation process to the audience. (For example: "The commission will hear first from staff who will present the staff report. Commission questions to staff will follow and then the floor will be open to the public, who may comment on the matter. Following public comment, the matter will come back to the commission for our deliberation and action.")
- 2) Announces each item before discussion begins.
- 3) Is even-handed and fair to all participants.

- 4) Observes specified time limits, three minutes per speaker unless special circumstances exist.
- 5) Protects commissioners and staff from verbal attacks.
- 6) Solicits opinions, feelings, and positions from all members.
- 7) Encourages the generation of alternative solutions.
- 8) Protects new thoughts from being rejected prior to fair evaluation.
- 9) Discourages finger pointing and blame-orientated statements or questions.
- 10) Keeps the discussion focused on the issue.
- 11) Delays evaluation and analysis of alternatives until all are on the table.
- 12) Guides the process of screening alternatives and selecting the solution.
- 13) Attempts to obtain consensus.
- 14) Moves the meeting along and does not let the advisory body drift off the subject at hand.

H. Managing Difficult Meetings

Here are some additional tips for managing any meeting, but particularly the difficult ones:

- 1) Encourage the designation of a spokesperson for any groups.
- 2) Ask staff to make sure there are plenty of extra agendas and staff reports.
- 3) Establish and announce rules before the meeting begins.
- 4) Introduce each item and possible actions.
- 5) Try not to waste time on routine items.
- 6) Encourage speakers to address the advisory body and not the audience.
- 7) Discourage clapping and shouting.
- 8) Use recesses to help diffuse hostility.
- 9) Adhere to speaker time limits.
- 10) If you don't already, use speaker slips/cards.
- 11) Make sure that all advisory body members are addressing each other, through you, and not the audience.
- 12) Consider continuing an item for further discussion if it appears consensus may not be reached.
