

CITY OF LINCOLN CONFIDENTIAL SECRETARY

Class specifications are only intended to present a descriptive summary of the range of duties and responsibilities associated with specified positions. Therefore, specifications may not include all duties performed by individuals within a classification. In addition, specifications are intended to outline the minimum qualifications necessary for entry into the class and do not necessarily convey the qualifications of incumbents within the position.

DEFINITION:

Under general supervision, performs difficult, complex, specialized and/or confidential office support to a City Executive, which may require the exercise of independent judgment, the application of technical skills, or a knowledge of detailed or specialized activities related to the executive to which assigned; performs related work as assigned; assists the public by providing information personally or directing information requests according to established procedures; sorts, logs and maintains records and other documents; learns policies, procedures and work methods associated with assigned duties; performs other related duties as required.

DISTINGUISHING CHARACTERISTICS:

The Confidential Secretary is an advanced journey level classification in the office support series in which incumbents are expected to independently perform the full scope of assigned duties. Incumbents perform a full range of complex, confidential and difficult specialized executive support duties, with responsibilities requiring the use of independent judgment or the application of technical or related skills. Incumbents often function as the only clerical support for a City Executive. This class is distinguished from the next higher classification of Office Supervisor in that the latter has supervisory responsibility for the functioning of an entire office.
